

A answer these questions with reference to the context

1 "I don't think he would have the pluck to do it, did you?"

a. Identify the speaker and the listener.

A Harry is the speaker and George is the listener

b. who is the 'he' referred to?

A the term he is used for Jerome

c. what did he have the blood to do?

A He did not have blood to jump into cold water

d. what does this reveal about the speaker's opinion?

A The speaker believe that Jerome lacked in determination

2 "what a Heartless maniac you are"!

a whose words are these? To whom are there spoken?

A James words are these and they are spoken for George b why is the person being called Heartless Maniac?

A Jerome called George Heartless maniac because Jerome was shivering with cold and George was laughing wickedly and hysterically

c what are the speakers feeling at this moment?

A at this moment George found that Jerome was wicked and hysteric person d what does the speaker do shortly after saying this?

A Shortly after saying this sentence the speaker Jerome managed to get the shirt on to the boat hook and howl out of the water

B Answer these questions.

1 where were the three friends and what time of day was it?

A The three friends were on a adventurous boating trip over river themes they were inside small boat it was in the morning

2 why do you think Jerome and George shared some not so true stories?

A George shared some not true stories because they were lying on , both the stories and they did not want that both of them should be in front of them

3 what had the three plan to do the previous night?

A The previous night the three friends have planned to have a long swimming in the river themes early next morning

4 what motivated Jerome to pretend to be brave?

A It was Jerome's idea of swimming in the river themes in order not to show himself stupid he began to make excuses like snakes weeds and other difficulties which may come while swimming in the river

5 what did George find very funny?

A George found that the shirt that he had put on was not his but it was George's shirt by mistake Jerome had put his own shirt into water thinking that was George's shirt

6 what was the precious moment ?

A amidst the fits of Jerome's laughter when he came to know that it was his own shirt that he had put into river Jerome suddenly changed into lively to see wear according to John this was a precious moment

7 what did Harry find really amusing ?

A Jerome tried to make him see the fun of the things but he could not see it while George was very dense at seeing joke sometimes he did not care about joking in spite of all these the two friends Jerome and George put themselves into jokes Harry found this really amusing

Discuss and write.

1 what kind of personality did George display give examples to support your opinion.

A George was second of the three men in the story boating with friends he was a bank clerk by profession it was George's idea for a trip by boat on the river themes as such he was not known for such interesting ideas within friends this was a large footed person he sleeps a lot for this he is often used by his friends he often created funny situation one night his watch stops working and he thought that it is morning so he started his work at the middle of the night

2 who would you say is the most balanced person of the three give reasons .

A George is the most balanced character of the story throughout the story George appears to be most practical educated sensible and sober person he stays under umbrella when it rains he doesn't argue with his friends he did not dump into cold water of river themes he is also a good cook . cooked Wholesome me t but refuses to add that water rat into it

Expand words .

1 water verb

2 water noun

3 freezing adjective

4 freezing verb

5 clock noun

6 clock verb

- 7 cut verb
- 8 cut noun

Grammar

A pick the correct sentences rewrite the ones that are wrong

1 accepts accept

2 no correction

3 knows know

4 live lives

5 are is

6 don't doesn't,

8 was were

9 aren't isn't

B there is one error in each line of this passage underline the error and write the correct word in the blank beside the line

1 floods _flood

2 has have

3 is _are

4 causes cause

5 overflows overflow

6 covers cover

7 bursts burst

9 leads lead

D add suitable complement to these words to make meaningful sentences

1 the night crew dark soon after the sunset

2 she looked very beautiful in the new dress

3 George is pretty handsome and very sensible person

4 flies appear around the sweets

5 he became very happy after meeting his old friend

6 Harry feels very upset on looking at his result

E fill in the blanks with the to infinity gerund or participle form of the verbs given in the bracket

1 to invite inviting

2 swimming to swim

3 to travel traveling

4 painting

5 walking

6 sleeping to sleep